1 GENERAL INFORMATION

Fengxian is located in the south of Shanghai. It is a new fashion livable city and a suburban tourist resort with the characteristics of ocean-farming.

Fengxian is a humanity city.

The name Fengxian originated from an ancient legend. It is said that 2500 years ago, Yan Yan, a disciple of Confucius, once gave a lecture here, and was regarded as a sage by the local people, and the town was renamed by Fengxian. Fengxian worships the sages and advocates virtue, which is also the eternal pursuit of the city. Today, Fengxian is the first national civilized urban area in Shanghai, which has the only A-level forest theater in China, as well as the largest youth center in Shanghai and the most beautiful lakeside museum. Fengxian brings life closer to culture and nourishes life with culture.

Fengxian is an ecological city.

There are the largest bay national forest park of Shanghai, central ecological green space, Huangpu River conservation belt and other large forests in Fengxian. Fengxian is "A forest of the City and a City in the Forest". The air quality of Fengxian has long been among the top ranking in Shanghai, there are more than 200 parks, the green coverage rate is 44.1%. "When you open the window, you can see the green, and you can enter the park when you go out", "Fengxian is a big park", and it is worthy of the name "China's most ecologically competitive city" and "China's climate-livable city".

Fengxian is an industry city.

Focusing on the four emerging industries of beauty and health, green new energy, general new materials and digital intelligent new equipment, Fengxian promotes urban development through industries and revitalizes industries through city, three industry business cards have been formed. Beauty and Health Industry of the Oriental Beauty Valley, which is the only "Capital of Chinese Cosmetics Industry" and one of the largest and most well-known cosmetics clusters in Shanghai.

Intelligent networked vehicles have built the first "Intelligent Driving Full Travel Chain Innovation Demonstration Zone" and "Intelligent Travel Ecological Valley" municipal characteristic park in China. International Digital Sea Park focuses on industrial digitization and digital industrialization to build a benchmark demonstration zone for urban digital transformation - the Digital Sea International Industrial Community.

Fengxian is a vibrant city.

Here, you can stay at the JW Marriott Fengxian in the Oriental Beauty Valley and enjoy the comfortable time by the Jinhai Lake. When you walk into Countryside Malone's, you will have a unique CP of western cuisine and accommodation. When you step into Dongzhangji, you can experience DIY of ice cream. When you step into Zheyuanfangjian, you can experience the unique charm of the national intangible cultural heritage Fengxian Rolling Lantern.

Here, you can taste delicious food - "The peach and pear of Fengxian is very sweet, Fuyang fermented bean curd is very good taste". Fengxian yellow peach and Zhuangxing honey pear, as the national geographical indications of agricultural products are very sweet, delicious, fresh and juicy. In addition, you can also taste Dingfeng fermented bean curd, mutton Shaojiu, Laobayang, Zhuanghang square cake, Qingxi stove cake and other special foods.

Here, you can enjoy the beautiful scenery, you can walk into Huami Zhuanghang farm and experience the beautiful scenery of "Golden Color with fragrance for hundreds of miles". When you wander into Wu Fang, a peach village, you can enjoy the beautiful scenery of the Jiangnan water town with pink walls, black tiles, small bridges and flowing water. When you cycle on the half marathon track in the Haiwan National Forest Park, you can dance with plum blossoms and cherry blossoms, and take pleasure in lotus flowers and red maple trees.

Here you can enjoy the art exhibitions. In recent years, many large exhibitions such as "Sanxingdui" and "Terra Cotta Warriors" in Fengxian Museum have been loved by citizens and tourists. At present, the essence exhibition of ancient scientific and technological relics is being held and everyone is welcome to decode the outstanding "genes" of ancient Chinese science and culture. In addition, there are numerous high-quality exhibitions waiting for you to visit, such as the "The Conservation and Restoration Exhibition of Never".
